1. PRINCIPLES

Ozford Institute of Higher Education (herein referred to as “the Institute”) is mindful of the need for students to consult with their lecturers and tutors and ensure that all students have access to appropriate student consultation services, outside of the lecture/tutorial time, with academic staff as and when required. This is regarded as an essential aspect of both the commitment by the Institute to supporting the learning by its students and to facilitate student retention and progression through their course.

2. SCOPE

These procedures apply to all full-time and fixed term part-time and casual academic staff.

3. DEFINITIONS

“Consultation” means a time when students either individually or in small groups seek face-to-face contact with academic staff in order to raise issues including assessment, content learning challenges or non-academic issues that they may be facing in the subject they are studying.

4. PROCEDURES

- 4.1 All academic staff have a position description that specifies availability for student consultation
  - 4.1.1 Full-time academic staff must provide at least two blocks of two hours on different days of each week during the trimester for informal walk-in consultations and/or formal appointments. Where possible, students should be encouraged to make an appointment.
  - 4.1.2 Part-time academic staff (up to .6 load) must provide at least one block of two hours each week during the trimester for informal walk-in consultations and/or formal appointments. Where possible, students are encouraged to make an appointment.
  - 4.1.3 Part-time academic staff with loads greater than .6 must be available for at least three hours of consultation which may include two blocks of 1.5 hours or a one hour and a two hour block on different days of each week. Where possible, students are encouraged to make an appointment.
  - 4.1.4 Casual academic staff must be available for informal walk-in consultations and/or formal appointments at least one half hour before and after each of their scheduled session/s. Where possible, students are encouraged to make an appointment.
- 4.2 As part of their induction program all Academic staff will be advised of the student consultation requirements of their role
- 4.3 Academic staff advise the Academic Dean of all consultation hours at the beginning of each trimester.
- 4.4 The Academic Dean informs administration staff of these times which are published in the unit outlines, the timetable and on the information board.
- 4.5 Consultation sessions may be held at places suitable for the purpose such as a vacant lecture room, tutorial room, office, or the Library but privacy should be ensured at all times.
- 4.6 The Institute provides with access to email accounts to all academic staff and to students on enrolment.

- 4.7 When communicating with students, staff should only use their official Institute student email address. Upon receiving an email from students requesting any information related to enrolment, assessment, complaints or other official or potentially private matters, the students should be informed that the contact needs to be sent via their Institute student email account so that their identity can be confirmed.
- 4.8 The Institute encourages students to utilise email outside of lecture/tutorial times. All lecturers/tutors, including casuals, are obligated to respond to emails from students in relation to the academic consultation.
- 4.9 Any student who is identified by Academic staff member during a student consultation as requiring general academic skills support and/or language support will be referred to appropriate student services staff.
- 4.10 The Academic staff member advises the Academic Dean and student services of all students referred to student services
